ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. John McNary entertained informally this afternoon with a few tables of bridge, her guests being the matrons of the Thursday Bridge club.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers and their guests, Mrs. T. W. B. London and Miss Winifred and Master Tom London of Vancouver, B. C., motored to Portland this morning.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Ben Olcott and small son 'Gret.

The Monday Night Dancing club will give its last dance of the season at the Moose hall on April the third. It will be a masquerade affair and the members are planning all sorts of original costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young and Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Mason of Albany, will be among the out of town guests attending the dinner dance at the Hotel Marion tomorrow evening. They will motor to Salem in the Young's car.

Mrs. Chauncey Bishop and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielsen spent the day in Portland Wednesday.

Wednesday afternoon the members of the Eastern Star gathered at the Masonic Temple for an enjoyable social afternoon.

The hostesses for the affair were: Mesdames Fred Stenloff, O. P. Hoff, Baker, and Miss Skipton.

Miss Helen Krause, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Albert.

Monday evening, April the third, the Rubenah lodge will give a Jitney social in the Odd Fellow's hall. An extremely enjoyable programme has been arranged for the entertainment and a variety of novel features will form the diversion of the affair.

Doaths with all manner of inviting wares for a nickle will be one of the joy distractions of the evening.

Is it a Cold, Cough or Bad Blood?

Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery not only cures the cough but it is a wonderful alternative and tonic. It builds up the weak body! Get it this very day from any medicine dealer, in either liquid or tablet form, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for large trial package of tablets.

Contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Its ingredients are made public and printed on wrapper. It's a pure alternative extract made with glycerine from native roots and herbs.

Have you become run-down, weak, emaciated, pale after a long siege of colds? Does the skin show that the blood is thin and watery? Spring is the time when vitality is at its lowest ebb—clean house now—by ridding the body of its accumulated poisons. Refresh the blood with a stimulating tonic. Profit by the experience of others. Build up the system with a reliable remedy, such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has stood the test of time, and for nearly a half of a century has sold more largely than any other blood remedy.

Take This Case for Instance.

Beaver, Oregon.—"I was suffering longer than 12 months with asthma, bronchitis and sore throat. I had a very bad cough, difficulty in breathing, tightness about the chest; could not sleep; had no appetite; was always tired. I was running down, from 155 pounds to 117. Every one told me I must die. I started to use the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and with the best of results. I used three bottles, which cured me. I have no asthma, no cough, no sore throat, no difficulty in breathing any more. Bronchitis is gone. I thank Dr. Pierce for his kind advice."—MRS. THERESA TOTZAUER.

Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup Easily and Cheaply Made at Home

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat or chest cold that has been hanging on and refuses to yield to treatment, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex and make it into a pint of cough syrup, and watch that cough vanish.

Pour the 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of 82. A day's use will usually overcome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

It's really remarkable how promptly and easily it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. A splendid remedy for bronchitis, winter coughs, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, which is so healing to the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation and is promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

The Websterian Literary society program last night was a live one, the following numbers being presented: Debate, "Resolved, That the advancement of civil liberty is more indebted to intellectual culture than to force of arms." The affirmative was upheld by Gustav Liening and Harvey Wilson and the negative by Arvid Peterson and John Gary.

The judges decision was in favor of the negative.

The next number, "A Bird of Mystery," chapter 3, was read by R. Hall and it lived up to its name for the mystery was not solved when the author read it would be continued by some other member next Wednesday evening.

A vocal duet by Messrs Gillette and Anderson, accompanied by Lloyd Lee, was heartily enjoyed and the trio responded.

The next subject, an impromptu speech, by Harold Eakin, speaking on "Military Training and the College Man," showed that from the present outlook college men were in favor of taking voluntary training in military subjects to increase their efficiency should their country ever need them.

A five minutes parliamentary practice was next in order and Roberts' Rules of Order were applied frequently.

After the program as the men were leaving, several of the fellows were scuffling and in the general mix-up, Arvid Peterson accidentally was pushed into a window which gave way and he fell through it. All that saved him from a fall of about 50 feet to the ground was the fact that one of his feet caught on the sill and R. Hall and the presence of mind to seize it before he fell and then with the aid of several fellows, he was pulled back into the room.

Peter son received a wide gash on the hip where a piece of glass cut through his clothing and into his body, the wound was not deep but when taken to Dr. Morse's office six stitches were found to be necessary to sew up the gaping wound.

There was a moment when every man in the room was so scared that they failed to recognize Peterson's danger, but the quick action of Hall was all that saved him from a drop that could not have been otherwise than fatal.

The Philodorian program for tomorrow will be a consideration of Elizabeth Barrett Browning, the poetess.

NEWSPAPERS TO LEAD ALL GREAT REFORMS

Judge P. H. D'Arcy Calls Attention to Tremendous Responsibility of Editors

"The intellect of the country is centered in the newspapermen and the attorneys," said P. H. D'Arcy, a Salem lawyer, in an address to the students of journalism in Guild hall at the University yesterday afternoon. Mr. D'Arcy came to Eugene expressly to speak on "Elin in Poetry and Song" at the assembly yesterday morning, but was induced to talk to the law and newspaper students also.

"Newspapers of the future will lead all great reforms and you students who enter the profession will be the moulders of public opinion. No class of people wield more influence than the journalists."

Lawyers and journalists are the broader minded men, as a class, than the men of any other profession. They are capable of grasping new ideas, in the days when men and women were burned for witchcraft in Massachusetts, men of both these callings were barred from acting as jurors.

"Editorial success depends more on the judicious use of the shears than on the eloquence of the pen. If one will watch the editorial pages that are the product of the greatest writers and clip out the best editorials, success is his."

Mr. D'Arcy started working on the Salem Statesman when he was 12 years old. He says that he was so small that he had to stand on a box for each type case. According to Mr. D'Arcy, the men on the paper earned high salaries, but spent them all on Saturday nights playing poker with the editor who was a past master of the game.

There were no union laws affecting the Salem papers then but only one strike occurred. This was when the editor refused to pay the printers on Saturday afternoon. In the evening he raised the money and about 11 o'clock at night the men went back to work.

Mr. D'Arcy entered Willamette university at the age of 17. Saturdays and the time after school hours, he spent in earning money. He was graduated at the age of 22 and after two years of reading law, was admitted to the state bar.

Mr. D'Arcy was the guest of President P. L. Campbell at luncheon at the Osburn hotel Tuesday night, and was entertained by Friendly Hall at dinner yesterday.—Eugene Register.

Original poetry, Paul Brown.

Debate, "Resolved, that the W. U. student body should elect a graduate manager for athletics." The debate was extemporaneous and the men to speak were chosen as the time came for a speaker.

Hea Sandifar gave a short interesting and humorous talk.

Parliamentary practice concluded the program.

No Collegian was issued yesterday. The next issue will be next Wednesday. Editor Ball is rounding up the campus news for a big issue next week.

Superintendent of Grounds, C. C. Clark is busy these bright spring days putting out flowers and tending up the round spots on the campus, thus removing all signs of winter. He has set out several hedges of roses and this summer will see the Willamette campus with its share of roses.

Tomorrow's student body meeting will be an important one, as the election of May Queen and May Day Manager will be held.

The various political leaders are rounding up their followers and the chapel will, in all probability, resound with the vigorous nomination speeches in favor of some princess who will succeed to the throne vacated by Leila I. May queen of last year.

The Philodorian program for tomorrow will be a consideration of Elizabeth Barrett Browning, the poetess.

FLAX EXPERT SAYS CRITICISM OF PRISON PLANT IS ERRONEOUS

Scores Portland Journal For Creating Wrong Impression of Conditions

Frank C. Miles, scientific assistant Fiber Investigations, U. S. department of agriculture, says the Portland Journal misquoted him in a news story and in an editorial relative to the conditions at the prison flax plant in a letter to Governor Wifaycombe. The letter says in part:

"As I stated in my letter of March 11, I found the flax situation at Salem very encouraging."

"The criticism that was brought to my attention while I was in your state was based almost wholly on what people had 'heard,' and in many instances the persons with whom I talked were much surprised when I told them the conditions as I saw them in the prison. They had evidently been misinformed and, on the whole, those who were inclined to be critical appeared pleased to hear that conditions were not as they had supposed."

"Of course, such items in the press as the editorials of the Portland Journal may assist in conveying a false impression of the condition of affairs, and this is indeed unfortunate."

"I was pleased to note, however, that for the most part the newspapers in your locality quoted me correctly regarding the progress of the flax work now being undertaken by the state of Oregon."

Governor Wifaycombe also received today from Mr. Miles a communication in regard to flax operations especially in connection with possible markets for the flax. After listing firms who might be interested and giving other information, the letter concludes:

"There is a great demand for both flax fiber and linen yarns. The British government has issued the following decree: 'No person shall from the date of this order until further notice, buy, sell, or deal in dressed or undressed Russian flax or tow at present in stock in the United Kingdom, or hereafter buy, sell, or deal in stocks of dressed or undressed Russian flax or tow after they have been imported into this country, except under license from the war department.' This decree will add considerable uncertainty as to the supplies of fiber, and also of yarns, which might reach the United States from Ireland. The manufacturers of linen from flax are very much concerned regarding the difficulty in securing supplies. I mention these matters in order that you may receive quotations from several different sources, and can therefore determine the best disposition to make of your fibre."

COURT HOUSE NEWS

A suit for divorce was filed in the circuit court today by Gabriella Gearhart against her husband, A. B. Gearhart. The couple were married December 15, 1915, and the plaintiff alleges that soon after marriage her husband began a course of cruel and inhuman treatment and finally shot a hole through the roof of the house, from the inside, with a revolver which she considers cruel and inhuman treatment and sufficient grounds for a divorce. She asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name of Gabriella Jones. Inturff & McInturff are attorneys for the plaintiff.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk this afternoon to Peter J. Neuwanger, a carpenter of Greeley, Colo., and Emma Minnie Madder, of Silverton.

Ralph D. Moores was today appointed guardian of the estate of Henry Gestalter, who was recently adjudged insane. The estate is valued at about $1,000.

W. E. Churchill was appointed by Judge Bushey today as guardian of the personal estate of Cuba Nosker, the 17-year-old son of William A. Nosker of Kansas Nosker. The minor has property in this county valued at $1,500.

An inventory and appraisement filed in probate court today in the estate of Otto Schmalzried estimates the real property at $1,300 and the personal property of the estate at $2,260. The appraisers were Grant Boyer, O. W. Meun and S. S. East.

Monroe Nye, who resides at Jackson Hill, near Turner, today filed his declaration of candidacy for the republican nomination for county commissioner. A slogan he asks that the words "Unimpaired Prosperity" appear after his name on the ballot.

County School Superintendent W. M. Smith went to St. Paul and to Butteville today to visit the schools of these districts.

Have you a friend living in Chicago who was born in either Washington or Oregon, or has lived two years in either of these states? If you have, please send their names and present address to the Salem Commercial club. A society has recently been formed in Chicago under the name of the Oregon-Washington society and it is desired that all who are entitled, should join. And the more that join, the more boosters there will be in Chicago for the extreme northwest. Therefore, send in the names of those you know who are eligible and the Commercial club and the Oregon-Washington society will do the rest.
